Student Spotlight

Name: Ariela Garvett, NYU 2015
Degree: GLS major; Middle Eastern Studies/Politics double minor
Current Role: Consultant in International Development
Award: Critical Language Scholarship for intensive Arabic study in Meknes, Morocco (2015)

Best experience with CLS: We got to travel every weekend. The very first weekend, the program took all of us to the Sahara Desert. It was really special because we had just started the program.

Advice to other CLS applicants: CLS's goal is to create a very diversified group of students. In your application, emphasize what you uniquely bring to the program.

Student Spotlight

Name: Nick Grassi, NYU 2012
Degree: GLS major
Award: Fulbright Business Grant in Mexico City, Mexico (2015)

Why apply to Fulbright: It's a prestigious program for ambitious and globally minded individuals who are looking to make a difference in a particular area of the world. I was always intrigued by the Fulbright, and as a former consultant, I knew I had to apply when I found the Binational Business Program.

Advice to Fulbright applicants: Above all, be passionate about what you're applying for. It's a long and vigorous application process, and the applicants with the most desire, who can prove why Fulbright is the key to their dreams, will be the ones who come away as grantees.

Fulbright Application Development Program

The Office of Global Awards at NYU is organizing a number of information sessions and workshops this spring in order to help students learn about the Fulbright application process. For more information, including dates and times, visit bit.ly/1niqQDW
