The Countdown is On

Counting down the days until you arrive at Washington Square? Review the important information below to help prepare for your first days at NYU -- which are sure to be unforgettable. After moving in on January 23, you and your family are invited to a special welcome reception with President Hamilton. The rest of your Orientation week will feature incredible speakers to introduce you to the resources of LS and NYU, exciting excursions to orient you to New York City, and opportunities to meet your fellow students. Once classes begin on January 28, so does Spring Welcome -- a program highlighting the best of NYU student life, from celebrity performances to student meet-ups. There's so much to look forward to, and it all begins soon!

Pre-Arrival Checklist

December To-Do's:

- Complete the new student reading, The Fire This Time
- Look out for the LS New Student Orientation schedule in an email later this month

Meet Ruby Dudasik, NYU ‘20
Student Leader
• Watch All About: NYU Wasserman to find out the career services available to you
• Review the health requirements for incoming students
• Complete academic integrity tutorial
• Complete the NYU sexual respect and alcohol education tutorials online. An email with more information will be going out to you next week

Upcoming:

• January: Submit any credit earned during gap semester
• January 4: Pay bill or enroll in payment plan
• January 11: Confirm housing assignment
• January 14: Watch housing webinar
• January 23-27: Attend New Student Orientation
• January/February: Attend Spring Welcome events

Important Links

• Next Stop Spring
• To Do List
• Wasserman Center Career Services

Questions?
Contact your advisor, Leah Guarino-Ramirez or Leslie DeWaters.

Hi! My name's Ruby, and I'm a junior double majoring in Global Liberal Studies (Arts and Literature Concentration) and Classical Archaeology. I'm also minoring in Hellenic Studies, and took classes at NYU Athens this past summer. I started out in the LS Core Program as part of First Year Away on the NYU London campus. It still feels a little unreal that I was able to study for eight months in a whole other country, in a program that turned out to be the perfect fit for me. When I began college, I didn't fully know how to combine all my interests into a cohesive career/educational path, and the Core program gave me the freedom to explore before settling on my majors. I've gotten to do things I never thought I could, thanks to the opportunities afforded me by LS. Outside of the classroom, I'm an LS Student Leader and also work at NYU's Institute for the Study of the Ancient World as a research and office assistant. I truly love the LS community and everything it's given to me over the past years, and I'm excited to see where it continues to take me in the future!