Choosing a 4th Class

• Refer to pages 9-15 in your Registration Guide

• Review the suggested options depending on your interests

• Contact your advisor with any questions
Registration Tips

• Consult departmental websites to familiarize yourself with courses needed for your intended major(s)
• Read the notes section on courses to ensure you meet the prerequisites
• Register for LS Core sections 001-099 (NOT the ‘GLS Only’ sections 101-105)

1) Notes: Open to LS Core students only. Sections between 001 and 099 are for LS CORE. If you try to register for Section 104, for example, you will receive an error in Albert saying you do not meet the requirements.

Frequently Asked Questions
I am in the LS Core, but my program displays as Global Liberal Studies in Albert. Why?
Placement Tests

If you are interested in registering for a Math, Computer Science or Foreign Language course, we recommend that you first review the information linked below. Placement tests should be completed prior to registering for classes.

• Math: See p. 7-8 of the Registration Guide for Math Placement/Registration information
• Computer Science Placement
• Foreign Language Placement & Exemption

Specific to International Students:
• Academic English for Liberal Studies Questionnaire (sent via email)
In order to register for either Calculus I or Math for Economics I, you must be considered calculus ready, either having earned a qualifying score on a standardized test, or having passed the math placement test.

- Calculus Readiness Criteria

As a reminder, NYU is test optional. You are not required to submit official scores to NYU directly unless you would like to earn advanced standing credit. If you submitted eligible test scores with your admissions application, you should be all set. If you did not submit eligible test scores, but need to register for either Calculus or MFE, you should complete the online math placement test. A passing score on the placement test is sufficient for clearance to register in a calculus-level math course.

- Calculus is only required if pursuing majors in Biology, Biochemistry, Chemistry, Computer Science, Data Science, Math, Neural Science, Physics, and/or the Prehealth Track
- Math for Economics (MFE) is only required if pursuing the major in Economics, either as a first choice or an alternate choice for a transfer program like Stern

Register for Math Placement Test (online, 60 minutes total, results shared within 2-3 days)

- Pass: Register for either Calculus I or MFE I
- No Pass: Register for the precalculus course, MATH-UA 9 Algebra, Trigonometry & Functions

Recommend completing the placement test before June 9th so results are available prior to registration.
How do I apply advanced standing credits (AP, IB, A-level)?

Discuss with your advisor AFTER THE ADD/DROP PERIOD, but submit the scores ASAP!
Check whether your test scores have been received by NYU and can be applied to your transcript or used for placement purposes

1. Click on GRADUES & TRANSCRIPTS on the Albert main page (on the left)

2. Select the link for TEST PROCES at the top:
You can see the scores have been applied by the Registrar's Office to your transcript for credit or course equivalency through the TRANSFER CREDIT REPORT or UNOFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT options from the same GRADES & TRANSCRIPTS page. It can take 8-12 weeks for scores to officially post.

Once you have registered for classes, you can access ENROLLMENT VERIFICATION here if you need a document for insurance, visa, banking or other reasons that officially identifies you as a student at NYU.
What else should I be doing prior to my arrival at NYU?

Required Tutorials
