Application Development Cohort 2023

The ADC supports NYU's New York City-based applicants to prestigious scholarships and fellowships. Participation in the ADC is required to receive NYU's nomination for the Rhodes, Marshall, and Mitchell Scholarships. It is also encouraged for NYU's applicants to Gates Cambridge, Knight-Hennessy, and Schwarzman. Applications are open to any current junior, senior, or recent alum from all disciplines with at least a 3.7 GPA. Applications to the ADC are due April 3, 2023.

More about Global Awards

- Global Awards are competitive, merit based scholarships and fellowships intended to support outstanding students in their academic and professional endeavors
- The NYU Office of Global Awards supports student applications to 25 different awards
- Liberal Studies students have been recipients of the Rhodes, Fulbright, Mitchell, Critical Language Scholarship, Gilman, Soros and others

Public Service Summer Institute (PSSI) 2023

The Public Service Summer Institute is a summer-long, cohort-based program designed to support promising students who have demonstrated a commitment to public service. Through guided writing exercises, case studies, and public service networking events, PSSI participants will better understand public service careers and develop materials to apply for relevant Global Awards, such as the Truman, PPIA, Critical Language Scholarship, and Rangel Summer Enrichment Program. Applications to the PSSI are due April 17, 2023 and are open to current first-years and sophomores from any discipline with a strong track record of public service. There is no GPA requirement. See the Global Awards website for the preliminary application.

Award: Global Equity Fellowship, Fall 2022, NYU London

Major: Global Liberal Studies

Minors: Peace and Conflict Studies

How did you find out about the Global Equity Fellowship and what inspired you to apply?

During my time at NYU Florence as a freshman, I was inspired by the work of the Global Equity Fellows. They created such a safe, fun and educational space that I knew I wanted to replicate at my next campus. This is how I found out about the position and what encouraged me to apply!

Advice to other applicants (or fellowship applicants in general)?

Share your passions! Don't talk about topics in your interview that you think will sound good, share what you love to do and what you are passionate about. If you love sitting in coffee shops, then suggest holding bi-weekly talks about the IDBE you care about in different cafes.

Tell us about the research you did for involvement in this fellowship?

I researched and made a small guide to six different museums in London, such as the British Museum, to examine their decolonization initiatives within their exhibits. This involved evaluating museum's efforts towards recognizing colonial influences, repatriation initiatives, and visitor education opportunities.

Fulbright Program for U.S. Students

The Fulbright U.S. Student Program, sponsored by the U.S. Department of State, and administered by the Institute for International Education (IIE), offers diverse opportunities for research and cultural exchange. Over the course of 8-12 months, Fulbright fellows are immersed in the culture and daily life of the country of their choice.

- Pursue a grant for study, research, or teaching abroad after graduation.
- For more information, visit the Office of Global Awards website.

Global Awards + Me (GA+ME)

The Global Awards team is launching a new programming series for undergraduates interested in exploring the opportunities supported by Global Awards. This series of six workshops will help early college students understand external opportunities and learn how to develop competitive essays and resumes, build strong relationships on campus, and develop their personal mission. GA+ME programming is intended for first and second year students who show academic and/or leadership potential. A full schedule of the workshops can be found here.

Authoring Your NYU Story

Looking for a relevant 1-credit course? Develop the narratives for your fellowship applications & explore leadership models with the Changemaker Center! Register for NODEP-UA 100 Authoring Your NYU Story this fall. The course is 1 credit, and only seven weeks long.
